This lovely Lucca villa provides a wonderful setting, nestling in the countryside and the hills between Lucca and the Versilian coast. From here you will be able to make beautiful visits to the beaches and excursions into the mountains and the little surrounding villages.

Recently restored, the spacious house still contains authentic Tuscan architecture and charm, a blend of country style, traditions and modern amenities.

It is composed of two buildings, where two groups or families may enjoy a stay together while maintaining their independence, as each house offers its own kitchen.

The lovely terraced garden, surrounded by an olive grove, offers guests several places to sit outside and is nicely furnished for outdoor meals.

The pool was designed to blend perfectly with the Tuscan countryside, and has been placed just outside the barn, with lovely, panoramic views.
