Located on a wine

producing estate, this magnificent luxury villa in Tuscany has a 360 degree view on the surrounding countryside, close to the village of Casole d'Elsa and San Gimignano. Decorated with exceptional taste and attention to detail, it has been completely restored in the last few years and has been equipped with all modern facilities including air-conditioning in all bedrooms and a WI-FI internet connection.

The furniture is an eclectic mix of many Mediterranean styles and this property is a 'must' for anyone who appreciates interior design. It is, without doubt, one of the most beautiful properties available for rental in central Italy, published in many International magazines, such as Elle Décor and Côté Sud.

The garden is beautifully kept with a herb garden and a fantastic swimming pool with infinity edge. A particular feature of the pool is that it has an electric cover making it safe for children.

Resident cat at the property. For lager groups it is also possible to rent an extra suite available at extra cost.
