Villa in Versilia for 9/10

people with pool located in a very peaceful position in the hills between Lucca and the Versilian coast, only one km from a small medieval village.

From the large verandah, the garden and the pool area there are beautiful views of the valley below. The very well-kept garden, rich of flowers and plants typical of the area, is completely fenced, making it ideal for families with young children. The large swimming pool is located in a panoramic position in the centre of the flat lawn. A bathroom with shower facility has also been installed in the pool area.
