This beautiful villa in

Florence is situated in the countryside, just 15 kilometres from the town center.

It is an original stone Florentine villa, built on the ruins of an ancient medieval tower. Most of the very spacious rooms have vaulted ceilings.

A 600 metre drive leads to the house through the vast grounds of this property.

The villa is situated in the centre of an estate producing olive oil and wine and offers spacious, light and airy spaces, plenty of room for a relaxing family holiday set in the privacy of the Florentine countryside.

Outside it has a beautiful pool area with shady trees and a pretty terrace where you can sit and marvel at the views of the countryside, olive groves and the villages nearby.

There is also a tennis court.
