This fantastic Villa in Lucca

dates from the 16th century. The property has been completely restored without detracting from the original character of the house, the ancient cotto floors, beamed ceilings and old fireplaces have all been preserved.

Rooms are bright and spacious and have been decorated with antique features. The property has a particularly large, flat garden on three sides of the villa, with several shaded areas and comfortably furnished sun terraces offering total relaxation. To the front of the villa there is the swimming pool with views over the plain of Lucca.

The house has satellite TV, DVD and hi-fi system.

The maid who takes care of the villa is also an excellent cook and on request will cook local dishes for clients.

A tennis court is available on the estate.

Villa sleeps 14.

Ground Floor: Entrance; large kitchen with fireplace; dining room with fireplace, library with fireplace, double bedroom with bathroom en-suite.

First Floor: 3 twin bedrooms with bathroom en-suite and 3 double bedrooms with bathroom en-suite; laundry room.

Maid service is included 2 hours per day, 5 days per week.
