This Tuscany villa is located in a quiet and secluded position. This small, rural hamlet with its fortified walls dating from Medieval times, is one of the best remaining examples of its kind in Tuscany. It is located, just north of Radda in Chianti, in a beautiful position overlooking vineyards and olive groves.

The wines produced on the estate are among the best in the Chianti Classico area, and the cellars certainly deserve a visit. Both the red and white wines, together with the olive oil, are known worldwide. The farm also manages one of the restaurants of the village where it is possible to taste the local cuisine. Cooking classes are also arranged, on request, by the local English-speaking office. The property is situated at a border of the hamlet, thus offering total privacy.

The views from the garden and the pool on the surrounding countryside are absolutely breathtaking. The house has been restored in a traditional Tuscan style, thus granting quality and comfort. Each bedroom has its own bathroom.

An out-door equipped terrace offers the perfect spot for relaxing and eating outside, enjoying the perfect feeling of a home in Tuscany. The swimming pool area is closed by a gate and is located on a lower level of the garden, reachable through a few steps. Here guests can also benefit of a huge room, part of what was once an hayloft, that has now been furnished and is an ideal cool "summer sitting room."

First floor: Dining room; sitting room with fire place; kitchen; double bedroom with en suite bathroom (bath & shower), opening on to the terrace; double bedroom with en-suite bathroom (bath & shower).

Ground floor: Walk-way room with a small single bed suitable for children opening on to the garden; twin bedroom with en-suite bathroom (shower only); laundry room.

Maid service is included 3 hours a day 5 days a week.
