Impressive villa in Siena in secluded position in the heart of the Val D'Orcia, remaining very discreet amongst its green surroundings.

The works of restoration have been carried out with great sensitivity to the buildings' original design and is now an extremely elegant and distinctive holiday home.

Outside you will find a lovely pool surrounded by well maintained gardens and adjoining terraces with wonderful countryside views.

This is a really wonderful house with lots of historic character. It's a lovely place for a relaxing and peaceful holiday in one of the most impressive countryside of Tuscany. It is a good base for walking and cycling. The historic town of Sarteano with all kind of services is at 3 km while Cetona at 7 km and Radicofani at 15 km.
